

Care You Can Trust

Creditation Quality Hallmark from... the gold standards
framework

Eshcol House is situated in one of the loveliest parts of Cornwall standing above the old fishing port of Portscatho on the Roseland Peninsula with outstanding views from well furnished and spacious rooms.

Eshcol House achieves the very best standards of nursing care and received the highest accreditation marks nationally for the newly announced Gold Standards Framework. We believe in the philosophy that the client and their needs come first and our dedicated and caring staff team will ensure that everyone receives the very best of care and attention whether they come for a brief period of recuperation or for a longer term.
